K-Group Questions

- 1. What does it mean to leave everything and follow the Lord Jesus?*
- 2. Do we tend to water down this statement in order to make it fit our lifestyles?*
- 3. Whom did Jesus come to call? To what did He come to call them?*
- 4. How are you wrestling with this issue in the process of sanctification?*

Providence Baptist

Proclaiming the Sovereign Majesty of God

Christ's love made him willing to suffer for us. He suffered all the misery that our sin deserved. He who caused the vast fabric of heaven and earth to start out of nothing, King of kings and Lord of lords, was content to take upon him the form of a servant. He was willing to be accounted as 'a worm, and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised of the people' (Psalm 22:6-7). He who was the object of eternal praises was, out of love for us, reviled and slandered as a drunkard, a glutton, a blasphemer, a madman, and possessed with the devil. He in whose presence was fullness of joy, was for the love of us, willing to become 'a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief'. This love made God willing to be made a curse, to be sold as a slave, and the Lord of life to die a base, accursed, and cruel death. There was no sorrow like your sorrow, no love like your love. Was it not enough, dearest Savior, that you were willing to pray, and sigh and weep for us perishing wretches? Will you also bleed and die for us? Was it not enough that you were hated, slandered, blasphemed, buffeted, but you were also scourged, nailed, wounded, and crucified? Was it not enough to feel the cruelty of man? Would you also undergo the wrath of God? Was it not enough to die once, but to also taste the second death and suffer the pains of death in body and soul? O the transcendent love of Christ! Heaven and earth are astonished at it. What tongue can express it? What heart can conceive it? The tongues, the thoughts of men and angels are far below it. O the height and depth and breadth and length of the love of Christ! Our thoughts are swallowed up in this depth, and there we must be content till glory shall enable us to have no other employment but to praise, admire, and adore this love of Christ.

Exposition

*“Yet he saved them for his name's sake,
that he might make known his mighty power.
He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry,
and he led them through the deep as through a desert.
So he saved them from the hand of the foe
and redeemed them from the power of the enemy.
And the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them was left.
Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.”
Psalm 106:8-12 (ESV)*

Pastor Jess Smith Luke 5:27-32

Consecration

*“They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,
wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
Therefore he said he would destroy them—
had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him,
to turn away his wrath from destroying them.”
Psalm 106:21-23 (ESV)*

Hymn of Commitment.....Jesus Paid It All (page 210)*

Benediction

*“Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.
Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say, ‘Amen!’ Praise the LORD!”
Psalm 106:47-48 (ESV)*
